VODNJAN

A city of 5.757 inhabitants (according to the 2001 census). Situated in the Istrian southeast at the intersection of state roads Buje-Pula, Rijeka-Pazin-Pula, regional roads Vodnjan-Fažana, Vodnjan-Galižana and along the railroad Divača-Pula. Known for its excellent wines, premium olive oil and the parish church of St. Blaise famous for its treasury of sacral art and mummies. Under the town's authority two enterprise zones - Tison and Galižana - are active.
